EASLEY APPOINTS STALEY TO CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL HEALTH CARE NEEDS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Adam D. “Danny” Staley of Wilkesboro to the Commission on Children with Special Health Care Needs.

Staley is the director of the Appalachian District Health Department. He is a board member of the State Employees Credit Union, High Country Healthcare and Appalachian District Hospice. He earned his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State University and his master's degree from California College for Health Sciences.

The commission is responsible for monitoring and evaluating the availability and provision of health services to special needs children in North Carolina under the Health Insurance Program for Children. There are eight members on the commission, each serving a two-year term. The governor appoints all members.
